

Please Tell Safeway to Share the Success

Safeway is refusing to negotiate a fair agreement with its Baltimore and Washington DC workers. The company is insisting that workers accept wages that can't pay the bills and unaffordable health care coverage. Safeway can afford to treat its employees fairly and with the respect they deserve.

IF SAFEWAY GETS ITS WAY, COMMUNITIES WILL SUFFER

- Fewer jobs that provide a living wage
- More uninsured working families— with taxpayers footing the bill for health care
- Millions drained from our local economies.

PLEASE TELL SAFEWAY TO DO THE RIGHT THING AND SHARE ITS SUCCESS

PLEASE TELL SAFEWAY TO SHARE THE SUCCESS!

The company has already negotiated a fair contract with tens of thousands of UFCW members across the country. It can afford to share its success with workers in Baltimore and Washington DC.
